

Have your say

Have your say about proposals to reduce library hours in Denbighshire.

Denbighshire County Council must find significant savings across the Council in order to ensure it can continue to deliver its essential services. As part of this, it is proposing a 50% reduction in opening hours across Denbighshire's Library Service.

The proposed new opening hours to Denbighshire libraries are:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Corwen	10am-1pm	10am-1pm		2pm-5pm	10am-1pm
Llangollen	9am-12pm	9am-12pm	9am-12pm		2pm-5pm
Rhuddlan	2pm-5pm		10am-1pm	2pm-5pm	10am-1pm
St Asaph	10am-1pm	2pm-5pm		10am-1pm	2pm-5pm
Denbigh	10am-5pm		10am-1pm		10am-5pm	10am-12.30pm
Ruthin		10am-5pm		10am-1pm	10am-5pm	10am-12.30pm
Prestatyn	10am-5pm	10am-1pm		10am-5pm		10am-12.30pm
Rhyl	10am-5pm	10am-1pm	10am-1pm		10am-5pm	10am-12.30pm

Have your say by answering the questions below:

The proposed hours mean I can access my nearest or next-nearest library when I need to:

Strongly agree Agree Disagree Strongly disagree Unsure / no opinion

Do you have any comments about the proposed new hours?

Next steps: your comments will be collated and will help Denbighshire County Council's Cabinet make a final decision.